Name of trust	Purpose	Suitable for UK domiciled individuals?	Effective for Inheritance Tax planning?	Suitable for non UK domiciled clients?	Is the settlor a beneficiary?
Isle of Man Probate Trust	Purely to avoid Manx Probate when the plan owner dies.	Yes.	No.	Yes but they may prefer to use the International Flexible Trust to avoid the proceeds being paid back into their estate.	Yes they are the sole beneficiary.
The Beneficiary Trust	To nominate beneficiaries to receive policy proceeds after death.	It could be used in order to avoid Manx Probate and where the Settlor wishes to keep the policy in his name until death. However the policy would form part of the client's estate on death for Inheritance Tax purposes and it is important the client does appreciate that.	No.	Yes, especially if they wish to remain the sole owner of the policy during their lifetime.	No because the trust only comes into force upon the death of the Settlor.
International Flexible Trust/ Excluded Property Trust	Creates a trust for a wide class of beneficiaries including the settlor.	Definitely not because it is a chargeable transfer and a gift with reservation.	Only for clients who are currently non-UK domiciled but feel that in future they could become deemed UK domiciled. This is because the trust could be used as an Excluded Property Trust.	Yes. Both as a way of just creating a simple trust or to be able to use it as an Excluded Property Trust.	Yes. He is one of many potential beneficiaries.
Loan Trust	To gift the growth of a plan and retain access to capital.	Yes.	Yes in terms of the growth on the plan and because of the ability to be able to 'write off' the loan to make further gifts.	It could be but where an individual has no liability to UK Inheritance Tax, it makes no sense for them to establish such a trust.	No but they are entitled to repayment of the loan.
Gift Trust	To make a gift of the entire plan.	Yes.	Yes. The value of the entire plan would be outside of the settlor's estate after 7 years.	Only where the settlor is comfortable with gifting away all rights to access.	No.
Discounted Gift Trust	To make a gift subject to the settlor being able to retain an income for life.	Yes.	Yes. If the client died within 7 years of establishing the trust, the value of the gift for IHT purposes would be less than it would have been had an 'ordinary' Gift Trust been established.	It could be but where an individual has no liability to UK Inheritance Tax, it makes no sense for them to establish such a trust.	No. They are however entitled to an 'income' that has been carved out in the form of capital repayments.
